Here we are, we're gathered all together,
Sharing things that soon will come to pass.
If you really care, look at your brother,
Forget yourself and get about your task.

It's nice to have our fellows here beside us,
But the world holds so much more for us to tame.
Mansfield builds our unity, yet we must Make our actions prove it worthy we came.

MOUNTIE BAND

The 1973-1974 school year proved to be an active one for the Mountie Band. The band appeared at every home football game and several away games where they continued in their tradition of fine half time entertainment. From the spirited strains of "Alabama," to classic themes like "1812 Overture," the band continued in its strive for "Pride, Spirit, and Excellence." Besides these half time appearances, the Mounties performed half time entertainment at the Pittsburgh Steelers versus New York Jets professional football game at the Three Rivers Stadium in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. At this game, the Mounties became the first college/university band to receive the Bicentennial Flag. Upon recommendation by the National Bicentennial Commission, the flag was presented by the Thompson Rifle Battalion in recognition of the patriotic spirit demonstrated by the Mounties. The band's season generally ends with the annual "Night with the Mounties" concert, but this year things were different. The band was invited to the International Youth Band Festival in Harrogate, Yorkshire, England. They accepted the invitation and were the only band to represent the United States at that festival. The experiences of that trip as well as during the past 1973-1974 season are now cherished memories. To share them all would be an endless story. However, it is every band member's wish that you strive with them for "Pride, Spirit, and Excellence," for school and our country.
